Olaya Street Showroom, No. 62, Al Olaya Street, Riyadh 12213

24 – 26 November 2025

MADE IN PORTUGAL naturally MEETS LAZADO

This showcase celebrates the art of living well – a meeting between Portuguese design, craftsmanship and contemporary elegance. Each piece on display reflects a culture that transforms tradition into innovation: furniture that blends artistry with function, ceramics that reinterpret heritage patterns, textiles woven with creativity and precision, and fragrances and jewellery that capture the essence of sophistication.

This curated selection brings together 18 distinguished brands representing the best of Portugal's Home and Fashion clusters. From furniture, decorative objects and porcelain to cutlery, rugs, accessories and scents, the collection showcases how authenticity and modernity coexist in Portuguese design. It is an invitation to discover refined materials, timeless techniques and a sustainable sense of beauty that naturally defines Portugal.

"MADE IN PORTUGAL naturally MEETS LAZADO" highlights Portugal's reputation as a destination of excellence in sustainable and high-quality production, strengthening business connections with one of the Gulf's most dynamic economies. In a country defined by regeneration and vision, Portuguese design finds new ways to inspire – naturally.

AICEP – Portuguese Trade & Investment Agency is the public body responsible for promoting Portugal to foreign investors and supporting the internationalisation of Portuguese companies. BARRO.

Barro. is a Portuguese brand owned by Cerâmica da Borralheira S.A., dedicated to creating and producing tiles made from one of the most enduring natural materials: clay. The company believes in the strength of natural and recycled materials to build a better, more sustainable world. Combining craftsmanship and technical expertise with contemporary design inspired by geometric forms, 3D effects and vibrant colour palettes, Barro. creates tiles that transcend trends – timeless pieces made to be cherished and to endure. Highly resistant and versatile, the tiles can be used both indoors and outdoors, and are available in any Pantone, RAL or NCS colour.

For this showcase, Barro. presents a selection of collections that embody its creative vision and respect for materiality. From Austin, Aza, and Detroit to Fez, Houston, Jaipur, and Kiev; from Kyoto, Montreal, and New York to Nice, Oslo, Paros, and Porto; and from Prague, Stockholm, and Sydney to Turin – each collection reflects the brand's appreciation for raw materials, attention to detail, and commitment to versatility. Together, they offer architects and designers a broad range of aesthetic and functional solutions for both residential and commercial spaces, where craftsmanship and contemporary design meet in perfect harmony.
